Objektbeschreibung

- + Ready to move in
- + French window
- + District heating
- + Wooden floorboards
- + Keller

The apartment is on the second floor of a beautiful Altbau building. It consists of a typical Berlin room with French windows, wooden floorboards and high ceilings (3,45 m), as well as a fully equipped kitchen and a bathroom with shower and connection for the washing machine.

In the living area, a wall with a large skylight was added to optimize the space by creating a small separate room that can be used as a bedroom.

Central heating and hot water are included in the additional costs (district heating).

Location

The apartment is located in the pulsating heart of Berlin, in the Friedrichshain district, which is considered one of the liveliest and trendiest districts in the capital. The surroundings give you the feeling of being in a quiet oasis: the small park "Comeniusplatz", where you can relax and sunbathe, is just outside the door.

Friedrichshain is particularly popular among students and younger people because of its pubs, clubs and restaurants. The Simon-Dach-Strasse with numerous restaurants, bars, cafés and small shops that invite you to look, marvel and linger is very near. Here there is no room for boredom!

Furthermore, you can get to other parts of Berlin quickly and easily by public transport: i.e. the stations "Ostkreuz" (S-Bahn) and "Warschauer Straße" (S-Bahn and U-Bahn) are both within walking distance.
